

Temple Emanuel 3rd-5th Grade Family Retreat

November 1st-3rd, 2013

We are excited to be offering a family retreat program for the first time ever this year through Temple Emanuel! Located on the beautiful grounds of URJ Camp Harlam in Kunkletown, PA, families will “bunk” together in hotel-style camp rooms and participate in an incredible weekend of learning, bonding, creating, playing, and exploring together! Here’s just a taste of what our weekend program will offer:

- ✧ Musical Shabbat services with our own former camp songleader, Debra Winter
- ⚙ Outdoor games and sports on Camp Harlam’s incredible facilities
- ✎ Social and educational programs for parents, students, and the whole family
- 🎵 Campfire fun, singing, storytelling and s’mores
- ✂ A creative art project your family can take home and enjoy
- 🌍 Service opportunities for tikkun olam and social action
- ♥ Family bonding time and memories to last a lifetime!

To sign up, fill out the form below or visit <http://tinyurl.com/TE-Family-Retreat> by Friday, October 18th. We will be leaving Temple Emanuel at 2:00pm on Friday, November 1st and returning at 2:00pm on Sunday, November 3rd. Montgomery County Public Schools are closed that Friday, and there will be no Sunday School.

Please contact our Youth Engagement Coordinator, Debra Winter, with any questions at the Temple office or by email at dwinter@templeemanuelmd.org.
